"I was directed by the members of the grand jury to say publicly that they were very, very much impressed with the zeal and energy and efficiency of Attorney General Horace Frierson and Sheriff Walter Griffin," said Christopher T. Looney, foreman of the grand jury that made its final report late Saturday afternoon.

"Maury county is indeed fortunate," continued Mr. Looney, "in having such splendid officials as Gen. Frierson and Sheriff Griffin. CHURCH CONVENTION HELD AT LASEA

BIG DINNER WAS SERVED ON THE GROUNDS-ABOUT 1,000 PEO-PLE PRESENT.

One of the bigest church events that has taken place in the eastern potion picnic held by the Christian church of an dchurch members from every section of the county were present to participate in the celebration and whole day's program was an overwhelming success.

At noon, an inviting and appetizing dinner was spread upon the grounds and it was a pleasing sight to see about 1,000 people gather around the feast mingling in good fellowship and christian love.

The singing for the occasion was led by Amis Derryberry and a splendid sermon was preached by Rev. John L. Rainey. The afternoon session was devoted to many talks and suggestions on church progress.
